

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

PART-TIME STUDIES - WINTER 2022

Important Information:

- Deadline for submission to Student Services Office: Friday, December 3, 2021.
 - Returning Students: Applications received after the deadline will be considered if there are extenuating circumstances.
 - Incoming Students: Students recently accepted for admission will have five (5) days after receipt of their ADC admissions letter to apply for financial assistance.
- Financial assistance will only be considered for students with demonstrated financial need.
- Students who are already in receipt of tuition reduction (i.e. Seniors or students with documentation showing they are full-time staff with Intervarsity, Navigators and Power to Change) are not eligible to receive further financial assistance.
- Students enrolled in non-credit programs are not eligible to receive financial assistance (i.e. Certificate in Ministerial Studies and Lay Leadership).
- If awarded, financial assistance will be sent to Student Accounts of Acadia University to be applied directly to the student's account.
- Maximum assistance is $248 per 3-credit hour course in which the student is registered for Winter Term 2022. A Full-Year 3-credit course is divided into 1.5-credit hours per term.

DECLARATION & SIGNATURE

- I understand that my request for financial aid is based on financial need. By making this application request, I certify that my projected household and academic expenses for Winter Term 2022 (January – April) are greater than my projected household income.
- I declare this information to be true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if my application is audited, I may be required to provide details to support my claim that my household expenses are greater than my household income. I agree to advise Acadia Divinity College if there is any significant reduction in my financial need during this academic term.
- I declare that I have registered for the courses included in this application.
- I understand that this financial assistance is applied on a course by course basis. I further understand that if I withdraw from my studies during Winter Term 2022 that the full amount of the financial assistance received for that course will have to be repaid to ADC.
