

College Assistantships Application Form: Academic Year 2019-2020

General information:

All college assistantship bursaries are based on an agreed commitment between the supervisor and the student. There are job descriptions available detailing the responsibilities, schedule, and average hours of work per week. Job descriptions for these positions are available on the ADC website. www.acadiadiv.ca/student-employment

Additional hours in any one week should be compensated by a reduction in hours at another time. No additional payments are possible, and the fulfillment of the work bursary is to be by mutual agreement between the supervisor and the student.

Work bursary payments are processed through the payroll system and are subject to normal payroll deductions. The payments will be made directly to the student only if the student account with Acadia University has been paid in full.
