

CORA GRAY AND MADELINE SAMPSON BURSARY APPLICATION

2022-2023

This bursary was established by a generous gift from the estate of Rev. MacPherson Eaton. The bursary is named after Deacon Cora Gray and Deacon Madeline Sampson who were choice servants of the Lord Jesus Christ in the Windsor Plains United Baptist Church. To be awarded to a student (or students) who is part of an African United Baptist Association (AUBA) church or identify as African Nova Scotian, and who demonstrates financial need.

Important Information:

- Deadline for submission to Student Services Office: Friday August 12, 2022 (for a Winter Term Only application, the deadline is December 2, 2022). Important Information:
 - Returning Students: Applications received after the deadline will be considered if there are extenuating circumstances.
 - Incoming Students: Students recently accepted for admission will have five (5) days after receipt of their ADC admissions letter to apply for financial assistance.
- Financial assistance will only be considered for students with demonstrated financial need.
- Students who are already in receipt of tuition reduction (i.e. Seniors or students with documentation showing they are full-time staff with I Intersarsity, Navigators and Power to Change) are not eligible to receive further financial assistance.
- Students enrolled in non-credit programs are not eligible to receive financial assistance (i.e. Certificate in Ministerial Studies and Lay Leadership).
- If awarded, financial assistance will be sent to Student Accounts of Acadia University to be applied directly to the student's account.
